‡ Liturgical Schedule for Summer Quarter 2018 is NOW being Created!—If you're currently a greeter, lector, or Lay Eucharistic Minister (LEM) for either Rite I (7:45 AM) or Rite II (11:00 AM) Sunday morning services at Christ Church please see or contact Monty Wright by Wednesday, June 20th concerning what Sundays you're NOT available to serve during July, August, and September. An e-mail inquiry to current participants has been sent out. Monty will assume a non-reply by a current participant means all Sundays during these 3 months are OK for them.

If you are currently NOT a greeter or lector for one of these services and would like to give it a try, please let Monty know by June 20th. NEW participants are ALWAYS welcome! Any possible new Rite I and/or Rite II LEMs should first contact Fr. Chris. Monty can be reached either by cell (240-434-2883) or e-mail:

Father's Day Celebration

In memory or honor of our fathers or important men in our lives, please feel free to place flowers, pictures, and/or mementos in the side windows of the church Sunday, June 17.

This can be done Saturday afternoon (16th) or Sunday morning (17th) prior to service. There will be small notecards on the back table if you wish to write to whom and by whom and place in window along with your remembrance.

Thank you.

Meaningful Moments...

This is devoted to pictures which reflect meaningful moments in the life of you or your family, or special moments in the life of our church. This week's "Meaningful Moment" took place back on May 20, 2007. In this picture, young Andrew Ciabattoni is being baptized by Fr. Jessee Neat. His sister (and our chief acolyte) Ava is getting into the act and is helping Fr. Jessee baptize her brother. Maybe we have a young priest in the making!

GRADUATION DAY

AT MARGARET BRENT MIDDLE SCHOOL

Congratulations to our students who have graduated from middle school this year and to all our students who are completing another year of school today. Special mention goes to Emily Bolton who achieved straight A's for all three years of middle school! Pictured is John Owens, Ryann Rocheleau, and Macie Topolski.

Episcopal 101: A Deeper Understanding of Our Church

The Vestry

In England the annual election of churchwardens took place in Easter week. The parishioners gathered at the church to hear the outgoing wardens render their accounts and elect their successors. The parishioners assembled in the vestry, the room off the chancel where the clergy vested. The assembled parishioners came to be known as the vestry. These were open vestries in that all adult male parishioners could participate. It was like a modern annual congregational meeting. In Virginia the parishes were very large and it was difficult to get all the male parishioners together. So they would meet only once and elect twelve of their number to serve for life. This was known as a closed vestry. The transition to a closed vestry was completed by 1633 or 1634, when a Vestry Act was passed. It provided that "there be a vestrie held in each parish." The current vestry evolved from this colonial pattern.

The vestry is the legal representative of the parish with regard to all matters pertaining to its corporate property. The number of vestry members and the term of office varies from parish to parish. Vestry members are usually elected at the annual parish meeting. The presiding officer (Chair) of the vestry is the rector. There are usually two wardens. The senior warden leads the parish between rectors and is a support person for the rector. The junior warden often has responsibility for church property and buildings. A treasurer and a secretary or clerk may be chosen. These officers may or may not be vestry members. The basic responsibilities of the vestry are to help define and articulate the mission of the congregation; to support the church's mission by word and deed, to select the rector, to ensure effective organization and planning, and to manage resources and finances.

The Rector

The priest in charge of a parish. Typically, a rector is the priest in charge of a self-supporting parish, and a vicar is the priest in charge of a supported mission. The rector is the ecclesiastical authority of the parish. The term is derived from the Latin for "rule." The rector has authority and responsibility for worship and the spiritual jurisdiction of the parish, subject to the rubrics of the BCP, the constitution and canons of the church, and the pastoral direction of the bishop. The rector is responsible for selection of all assistant clergy and staff, and they serve at the discretion of the rector. The church and parish buildings and furnishings are under the rector's control. The rector or a member of the vestry designated by the rector presides at all vestry meetings. Source: An Episcopal Dictionary of the Church.

BULLETIN INSERTS

June 17, 2018

TEConversations

A highlight of General Convention 2018 will be The Episcopal Church Conversations (TEConversations), three innovative, inspirational and informative sessions featuring brief talks, videos and engaging interludes.

TEConversations will be part of the three Joint Sessions of General Convention, each focused on one of the three priorities of General Convention – Racial Reconciliation, Evangelism and Care of Creation.

TEConversations will be presented during Joint Sessions of the House of Bishops and House of Deputies which include visitors, volunteers and others in attendance at General Convention 2018. For those not attending, the TEConversations will be livestreamed and available for viewing on the Episcopal Church website (www.episcopalchurch.org) and the General Convention website (www.generalconvention.org). The TEConversations will include simultaneous Spanish interpretation.

“The team has shaped a truly interactive festival of ideas,” explained the Rev. Canon Stephanie Spellers, Presiding Bishop’s Canon for Evangelism, Reconciliation and Creation Care. “Deputies, bishops and guests will experience compelling talks, along with music, poetry and robust social media that extend the learning and engagement from Austin out to the whole church and beyond.”

Each TEConversations session will be 90 minutes and will include three speakers, videos, music interludes and deeper small group engagement. The speakers represent international leaders, well-known Episcopalians, and rising voices in the church. The TEConversations will be facilitated by David Crabtree, News Anchor at WRAL-TV in Raleigh, NC and a deacon in the Diocese of North Carolina. The TEConversations topics, times and speakers are:

Racial Reconciliation

Friday, July 6 from 10:30 am – noon Central

Speakers:

- Arno Michaelis, a former racist skinhead who examines aspects of his past in his books, including My Life After Hate.

Evangelism

Saturday, July 7 from 2:30 pm – 4 pm Central

Speakers:

- The Rev. Lauren Winner, an Episcopal priest and popular author who bridges faith and culture.

- Bishop Alan Scarfe of the Diocese of Iowa, who led revivals in every diocesan congregation in 2017.
- The Rev. Daniel Vélez-Rivera, a church planter from the Diocese of Virginia.
