

Christ Church Member Bob Donaldson Wins His Class In Governors Cup Regatta

We congratulate Bob Donaldson (Left), an 8:00 o'clocker at Christ Church for winning his class in the Governor's Cup Race.

According to Bob, "The Governor's Cup Regatta has been run from Annapolis to St. Mary's City for the past 45 years. In 2012 the Governor's Cup added another race leg on the Potomac River that runs from Dahlgren to St. Mary's City. A distance of about 47 nautical miles. The race started at 6pm Friday, August 2nd and we finished at around 10am Saturday, August 3rd. The race is run overnight because it is cooler and the wind is generally better than in the daytime. Every year we have gotten a horn toot when crossing the finish line, but this year was pretty exciting when we got a Gun instead. The Gun signifies the first in your class to finish."

Meet Our Missionaries: Madeline Roberts, Young Adult Service Corps

An update from Madeline Roberts, a member of the Young Adult Service Corps (YASC) serving in Liverpool

I work at Liverpool Cathedral in the education department. My schedule is different almost every day and changes especially along with the church calendar. On any given day, I could be found giving tours of the cathedral to visiting schools, helping prepare for workshops, or even leading those workshops. Each workshop contains many parts designed to appeal to every child in the school.

We have guided tours of the cathedral that can be tailored to the holiday; our Easter workshops focused on all of the different scenes of the crucifixion we have in the cathedral, and the different ways Jesus can be represented in art. We create beautiful replicas of the many stained glass windows in the building, we teach new skills to the children (like when/where/how to pray, and how to be a hero or heroine in your school), and we even have dramas that portray different stories from the Bible according to each holiday. For our Christmas workshops, I ended up dressing up as the angel Gabriel and holding a Q&A session with all the children. The variability makes things exciting, and no two days are the same!

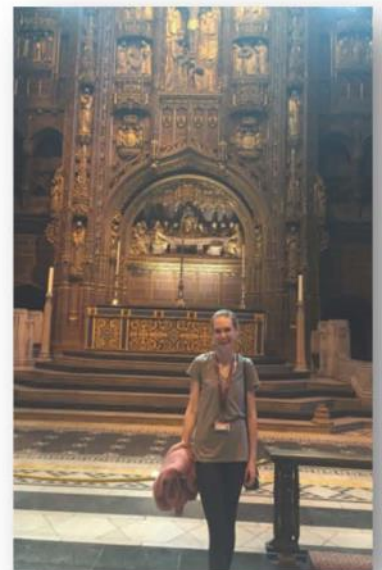

Why did you choose to serve as a YASCer?

It's a bit difficult to answer this question retroactively because I feel as though my answer now is different from my initial reasons. I chose to serve because I wanted a year to grow not only as a young woman, but to also grow in my faith. I knew that choosing a job that would require me to live in a completely different country, in a different corner of the world would be challenging, but after finishing university, I wanted to challenge myself. I was interested to see how the church can function not just as a place of worship, but also as a place of community and a place of work. I chose to serve because I felt like I had so much more to give than what was being asked of me in normal work.

I also chose a program like YASC, because I wanted to experience a different culture. Meeting and learning about new people and places have always been top priorities of mine; how can I begin to try to understand the world if I've only ever been to part of it? YASC gave me that chance.

How can we pray for you and the people you work with?

I would start off by praying for all of the different projects that Liverpool Cathedral is involved in. We work so hard to get people who have never been in the cathedral before to visit - through concerts, banquets, plays, and school events. I would pray that every person who finds themselves walking through our doors has an encounter with God. I would also pray for all the other YASCers, that they have the strength to continue to do their work and the support they need to live somewhere so far away and different. Personally, I would appreciate prayers to help support me on my tours, to not let the difficult students get to me, and to give me the strength and courage to continue doing God's work as my year comes to a close.

REFLECTIONS ON THIS SUNDAY'S READINGS

(AUGUST 11, 2019) THE NINTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST—PROPER 14, YEAR C

Welcome to Christ Church. Central to today's liturgy is the gospel call to live always in expectation of the Lord's return. That stance of waiting enables us to put all other aspects of our lives in the correct order. Material needs become not irrelevant, but secondary to our life in relationship to God in Christ. Jesus calls us to live as though he is at hand. The Eucharist is the repeated foretaste of the coming of the Lord to take us into the Kingdom.

We will spend several Sundays reading through the concluding portion of the Epistle to the Hebrews. This section deals with the call to faith, which we have in Christ. Our forbearers in the faith, especially Abraham and Sarah, are presented as models of this faith, which is described as the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things unseen. It is in remembering that God was faithful to our ancestors in faith that we are equipped for our own time of waiting.

The first reading relates God's promise to Abraham and Sarah, old and childless, to give them an heir and produce from them a new people. For the first time, the Scriptures express what will become central to the Gospel proclamation: righteousness depends on faith.

As we gather to celebrate the Eucharist, we are upheld in our expectation of Jesus' promise to take us into his Kingdom by the memory of our mothers and fathers in the faith whose hope was fulfilled by God.
