REFLECTIONS ON THIS SUNDAY'S READINGS

(FEBRUARY 16, 2020) —6TH SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY

Welcome to Christ Church. Again, we hear a portion of the Sermon on the Mount. Matthew's gospel presents Jesus as the fulfillment of Moses. In today's reading, Jesus speaks of various requirements of the Law. Those who live in his Way will follow the Law inwardly, not simply outwardly. Jesus' own relationship to God as God's Child is revealed in his teaching our relationship as children of God given to us in baptism grows through the way of living he taught.

The first reading from Sirach (Ecclesiasticus) is perhaps the clearest statement on human freedom of choice in the Hebrew Scriptures. This passage alone would seem to suggest that everyone can do that which is right unhindered by sin. This passage needs the corrective supplied by today's gospel reading that makes it clear that we are still dependent upon God's gracious assistance if we are to carry out the inward obedience that Jesus commands.

In the second reading, Paul continues to seek to deal with division in the Corinthian church between cliques loyal to him and those loyal to Apollos. His approach is to suggest that each member of the body is essential and it is God alone who is building up the church through the varied ministries we are given. The liturgy is this truth about our life in the church, as each of us has a role to play and all of our individual liturgical actions and words combine to make the work of the people of God.

The Gifts of the Enneagram

A Retreat in St. Mary's City, Maryland

Co-Sponsored by: Illuman DC & Trinity Episcopal Church, St. Mary's City

March 27 & 28, 2020

"The Enneagram is a dynamic system for self-knowledge and spiritual transformation. It is a wonderful tool that can help us see and let go of the false self—which masks the image of God within us—and allow us to live from our True Self—the unique manifestation of Love that God intends us to be."

~ Richard Rohr

The Enneagram is much more than just another popular formula to pair people to the collection of their personality foibles and eccentricities. It explains the "why" of how we think, act, and feel. It helps us come to terms with our gifts as well as the addictive patterns that tether us to our greatest interpersonal, spiritual, and emotional challenges. The Enneagram invites us to deeper self-awareness as a doorway to spiritual growth.

~ Christopher L. Heuertz, The Sacred Enneagram: Finding Your Unique Path to Spiritual Growth

RETREAT DESCRIPTION:

The Gifts of the Enneagram Retreat will provide numerous opportunities for exploration, whether you are new to the Enneagram or have been using it as a tool in your spiritual practice for years. Foundational information will be shared for each type to set the stage for deeper conversations. All that is required for participation is a willingness to be present in your body, have a curious mind and to bring an open heart.

This weekend retreat will provide participants with opportunities to explore a mature spirituality through a deepening into the wisdom of the Enneagram. Through teachings and experiential opportunities, participants will be invited to explore the path to self-healing and wholeness using the Enneagram as a map and guide.

We recommend participants take an online assessment and read the descriptions of each Enneagram type prior to the attending the retreat. A free basic version of the Enneagram assessment tool may be found at: <http://www.9types.com/rheti/index.php>. For a more complete assessment and report at the cost of $12:
