Calling New Vestry Members - An important ministry in any Episcopal Church is serving on the Vestry. Each "class" consists of three members, and serves for three calendar years, beginning at the election at the Annual Meeting in January and concluding at the same in three years time. Potential members need to be involved in the parish (regular worshippers, members of record, known to the Treasurer) and Confirmed (or Received) into the church - or willing to be at the next opportunity. If you feel called, or want more information, please see Fr. Peter or any current Vestry member about the opportunity to serve in parish leadership.
