Thank you!

- Thank you to Shelby Oppermann (Chairperson) and to all many people who volunteered their help or attended this year's Strawberry Festival. The rain finally stopped and we had a wonderful day! We raised (after expenses) $1,128.68 with more money pending. The proceeds from this event go completely to support local charities.
- Thank you to our Youth for their leadership at the 11:00 am service on Pentecost Sunday.
- Also, Thank you to Keith Owens for hosting another spectacular Lunch Bunch gathering this past Wednesday.

Armed Forces and Federal Ministries: The Frontline of the Jesus Movement

Almighty God, we commend to your gracious care and keeping all the men and women of our armed forces [and federal ministries] at home and abroad. Defend them day by day with your heavenly grace; strengthen them in their trials and temptations; give them courage to face the perils which beset them; and grant them a sense of your abiding presence wherever they may be; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(from The Book of Common Prayer)

The office of the Bishop for the Armed Forces and Federal Ministries was established during the turbulent time of the Vietnam War, when our country was divided politically and socially. The Episcopal Church discerned a call to establish a dedicated episcopacy to tend to all members of the church who served in the military. Over the decades, the ministry has grown to include veterans' hospitals and the Bureau of Prisons.

The Bishop for the Armed Forces is a suffragan who works directly for the Presiding Bishop. Our office supports ministry to the military and oversees the Episcopal chaplains who care for our servicemembers, veterans, and federal prisoners. We equip our chaplains to preach the loving, liberating, and life-giving Gospel of Jesus Christ in some of the most challenging locations and demanding situations. It is not an understatement to say that our chaplains serve on the "frontline" of the Jesus Movement.

We currently have 110 chaplains serving in the active duty military, reserves, VA Hospitals, prisons, Civil Air Patrol, and Coast Guard Auxiliary. Their ministry spans the globe. Our Episcopal tradition is uniquely able to respond in Christ's name to people of different backgrounds, cultures, and gender-identity at a time when many denominations will not. Our priests are empowered to minister to all of God's children, no matter the situation. It is the greatest honor to serve Christ in that freedom of witness in a world that so desperately needs to hear that Jesus is for them - no exceptions.

There are some ways that you can support us in our work:

- Support and encourage priests to consider the call to Federal Chaplaincy
- Be a parish that calls a clergy person who also serves in the National Guard or Reserves
- Look for ways your parish might support its local community through affiliation with the Guard, CAP, Coast Guard Auxiliary, local military base, or VA Hospital.
- If you feel moved to do so, you may make donations to this important ministry by sending a check to "DFMS," with "Bishop for Armed Forces" in the note line, to: Episcopal Church Center, Attn: Controller's Office, 815 Second Ave., New York, NY 10017

For more information and links to the various federal branches, visit our website at www.episcopal-federalchaplains.org

A Letter from Bishop Mariann Budde regarding a communication from the Presiding Bishop, Reclaiming Jesus: A Confession of Faith in a Time of Crisis

Dear Clergy Colleagues,

Blessings to you on this Pentecost weekend. May your celebrations on Sunday be filled with a palpable manifestation of the Spirit's power.

During my sabbatical, I've had time to consider the many ways the Holy Spirit, working in us, accomplishes far more than we can ask for or imagine. I'm grateful how in the past seven years, I've experienced the Holy Spirit at work in and among you, and I look forward to being back with you soon. In the meantime, know that I am praying for you, that you might experience in new ways the Holy Spirit moving through your lives and ministries.

I write with a Pentecost invitation, and challenge, from our Presiding Bishop.

While the headlines regarding Presiding Bishop Curry have focused of late on his role in the royal wedding in London, he has been quietly at work for months with other Christian leaders calling themselves "the elders," on an initiative that they have named Reclaiming Jesus.

Today he wrote to all bishops in the Episcopal Church asking us to share with you the first fruits of this work.

First a bit of background: On Ash Wednesday, Presiding Bishop Curry gathered with leaders from across the spectrum of Christian denominations, among them, Richard Rohr, Amos Brown, National Baptist, Walter Brueggemann, Barbara Williams-Skinner, Tony Campolo, Jim Wallis, Cynthia Hale and others. They came together to pray and share their concerns, in their words, "for the soul of our nation and the integrity of faith."

Together they drafted a statement: Reclaiming Jesus: A Confession of Faith in a Time of Crisis. Throughout the Easter season, they worked to refine their message and provide resources to accompany it. They wanted it to be more than a statement, but the beginning of a process of discernment, prayer, reflection and, action for us all. Now they are preparing for a public launch of this initiative at Pentecost including a prayer vigil and service on Thursday, May 24th in Washington.

The elders have invited other Christian leaders to co-sign the confession of faith, provided that we would share the statement and supplemental resources with the clergy and congregations in our charge, which I am glad to do, for the concerns they raise are ones that I share.

Much of the language of the confession is in the form of renunciations, rejecting the forces of wickedness that rebel against God and demean humankind. There is also a bold affirmation that being a disciple of Jesus propels us not only to a personal journey of salvation but a public life committed to the Kingdom of God on earth as it is in heaven. I am committed to both the personal and public dimensions of being Jesus' disciple, which is why I signed Reclaiming Jesus. I am well aware that statements are insufficient without corresponding action, as we are called to join in creating a world aligned with God's dream for humankind.

The prayer service, to which all are invited, will be held on May 24, 7 p.m. at the National City Christian Church, 5 Thomas Circle, Washington, DC, 20005. Following the service, the elders will lead a candlelight procession to a prayer vigil at the White House. You can find more details about the service and vigil here. Here, too, is a short video which in just over a day has been viewed by almost half a million people. Surely that is an indication of the hunger in our churches and beyond for this expression of Christian leadership.

I will pray and process with the Presiding Bishop and those gathered on May 24th and invite you to join us, either in person or live stream. If you resonate with the concerns expressed in Reclaiming Jesus, please share it with the people under your spiritual care.

May we all be open to the Holy Spirit life-giving power, this Pentecost and always.

Faithfully in Christ,
