Christ Church Short Announcements

Acolytes! We are putting out the word that we would like to see if any of our young people (4th grade on up) would like to serve as an Acolyte. The Acolyte carries the cross at our services and assists the priest at the altar table. If you are interested and willing to serve about one service per month please reach out to Fr. Peter or parishioner Monty Wright. Fr. Peter will do training with any and all persons who are interested in possibly serving..

Lay Eucharistic Ministers (LEM) and Training - On Sunday, September 17th, following the 10am service, Fr. Peter is going to provide a LEM training/refresher, both for the current LEMs from each of our services, and for those who want to know more about the ministry. If you have any questions, please reach out to Fr Peter or parishioner Monty Wright.

Parish Homecoming Sunday - The Sunday after Labor Day is also, unofficially, known as Homecoming Sunday. Why? Because it represents the beginning of the year from one summer's end, to another's beginning. Additional, people who have traveled or gotten out of a routine, often engage anew with their norms after the summer holiday. To commemorate our Homecoming, at our 10am Coffee Hour we will snack on some special goodies (Thank you Helen Wright!) as a way of marking this occasion.
